Detectives arrest five men in prostitution operation

Police are posting online “warning ads” to potential suspects

Howard County police conducted a reverse prostitution operation late last night, resulting in the arrest of five men for solicitation of prostitution and related charges.

Officers arrested the men for soliciting prostitution at a hotel in the 8800 block of Columbia 100 Parkway in Columbia. As part of the operation, detectives placed fake ads on the website Backpage, which is a site known to detectives to be used for prostitution. Men who called the number in the ad spoke with an undercover female officer who provided a meeting location upon the caller's request. When the men arrived and offered money for sex, they were arrested and charged with solicitation of prostitution and disorderly conduct:

- Henry Osae Ani, 36, of Beltsville
- Jose Reynaldo Benitez-Cruz, 43, of Beltsville
- Ceon Anthony December, 20, of Baltimore
- Xavier Alexander Lloyd, 24, of Ellicott City
- Olaolowa Omotosho, 27, of Laurel

This operation is part of Howard County's ongoing effort to combat prostitution, human trafficking and related offenses.

The HCPD also posts ads on relevant websites reminding people of the dangers and penalties of engaging in this kind of activity. The ads read:

LOOKING FOR A GIRL? POLICE ARE LOOKING FOR YOU.

HCPD has zero tolerance for Prostitution and Human Trafficking.

If you commit these crimes, you WILL be arrested, prosecuted and your personal information released to the media.

If you are a victim, HCPD can offer housing, treatment and other help.
